Devoted Health Named to Inc.’s First-Annual Best-Led Companies List

WALTHAM, Mass., November 2, 2021 — Today, Devoted Health was named to the inaugural Best-Led Companies list from Inc., an exciting 12-point measure of management excellence across the middle market. This novel program is the first Inc. recognition list to honor both public and private companies.

“What makes our company unique is our profoundly deep mission orientation, which is central to everything we do, and is the key to our success.” said Devoted Health CEO and co-founder Ed Park. “Maintaining a people-oriented focus, both internally with our employees and externally with our members, is what enables us to build a new, better future for healthcare, and we are honored to be included on this list of companies poised to change the world.”

The final list recognizes 250 companies that have a successful track record with leadership teams that spur solid performance, create value, penetrate markets, engage with customers, and more.

To be considered for the list, each company had to fill out an application answering questions about its performance, executive team, and leadership. Applicants were then analyzed via an algorithm that identified the very best companies according to their leadership teams' superlative accomplishments in four key areas: performance and value creation; market penetration and customer engagement; talent; and leadership team.

“This inaugural list of companies represents the remarkable mid-sized companies, both public and private, often founder-led, that are at the vanguard of reinventing American business,” says Scott Omelianuk, editor-in-chief of Inc. magazine. “With their leadership, all business will benefit from an exciting, competitive future full of possibilities.”

Devoted Health is a next-generation health company working to improve health and well-being for older Americans. The company combines into a single, seamless service: a best-in-class Medicare Advantage (MA) insurance product; partnerships with leading providers; and Devoted Medical, the company’s own advanced virtual and in-home care provider. This is all powered by a groundbreaking end-to-end proprietary software platform built by Devoted Health and a singularly mission-focused culture that operates upon a foundation of profound love for and trust with members.

Devoted Health continues to grow across its markets in Florida, Texas, Arizona, and Ohio, and announced expansions to more markets in those states and Chicago, Illinois this fall. Devoted Health serves nearly 40,000 members. The company also recently announced that it had closed $1.15B in Series D funding and will use the new capital to continue accelerating this progress.
To compile the list, Inc. evaluated private and public U.S.-based companies with a 2020 revenue of $50 million to $2 billion or a valuation of $50 million to $10 billion using a proprietary 12-point measure of management excellence generated with input from partners at Pitchbook and Shango Labs.
